LOUIS BROMFIELD

Author and Lecturer

Because he has distinguished himself in the world of literature; because he has returned to make his home with us again; because he has added fame to his school, his city, his state, and his nation through his attainments; and because our graduation falls upon the twenty-fifth anniversary of his graduation, we are highly honored in dedicating this, our Manhigan, to Louis Bromfield.

MR. W. L. MILLER
Superintendent of Schools

Superintendent W. L. Miller has effected a great deal of progress in the Mansfield school system in the short time in which he has been here with us.

Mr. Miller has shown a keen interest in the welfare of the students and has striven for advancement in Mansfield schools and community.

MR. JESSE BEER

Principal

As friendly to the most humble Freshman as to the most prominent senior, Bandleader Principal Jesse Beer has proven himself a keen judge of boys and girls and a capable administrator.

MR. HERMAN D. BISHOP

Assistant Principal

Always approachable, Assistant Bandleader, Herman Bishop is a man as easy to talk to as a fellow student. His sound advice and enthusiasm, which he shows in all his activities, are typical of his true Mansfield High spirit.

MANSFIELD 14—AKRON WEST 0

When the curtain was rung up on the Tyger grid season of 38, the prospects were rather dismal for a successful season as only Dick Nagle had returned from last year's first string squad. In their first encounter Mansfield was due to meet none other than Akron West. Early in the first period the Bengals took advantage of a Cowboy fumble and drove to the 15 yard line. There the running attack bogged down and Nagle faded back and threw a pass into the outstretched hands of Jack Dugger. Schwaner's kick for the point was good. Late in the second stanza the Murphymen started a drive from deep in their own territory. Nagle added the finishing touches to this by throwing an aerial to Ike Smith. Again Schwaner's attempt for the extra was good and Mansfield led 14 to 0 which completed the scoring for the day.

MANSFIELD 7—MASSILLION 33

The least we say about this affair the better. The passing combination of Slusser to Gillon spelled defeat for the Tygers. Mansfield also helped the Massillon Eleven's causes by letting them intercept two passes which resulted directly in scores. The Jungle Cat's only touchdown came as a result of a sustained drive with a pass from Nagle to Hershey climaxing it. Gallagher and Lehr's work on the line was outstanding.

MANSFIELD 40—HAMMOND 19

On the rebound from the last game, Mansfield scored at will against a hapless Hammond combine. In this encounter long runs were the rule not the exception with Hershey and LeMunyon doing some fancy sprints for M.H.S. However, the Hoosier's Shimala turned in the best performance. Lehr, Gallagher and Goettle were the defensive stars.

MANSFIELD 20—COLUMBUS 12

Mansfield continued their winning ways against a rather weak Capital City combine by defeating them 20 to 12. On the second play of the game "Red" LeMunyon got loose on a 76 yard jaunt to put Mansfield into the lead. It was LeMunyon who also scored the Bengals second six points on a short end run. Nagle was responsible for the third Tyger marker when he bucked through from the 5 yard line. Schwaner kicked two of the extra points.

MANSFIELD 0—SANDUSKY 45

Scoring at will Sandusky thoroughly trounced Mansfield in their rival gridiron classic. Fleming and Balconi were the two burrs in the Tygers side. At half time the Bay City led 13 to 0 but after the intermission the Streaks went to town. Only once did the Bengals have the ball in enemy territory. This was the worst whipping suffered by a Murphy coached squad in many years.

MANSFIELD 13—SHELBY 26

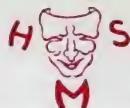

Again Mansfield journeyed to a neighboring city or should we say village to do battle with the Shelby Whippets. At the time of this engagement Shelby's goal line had been uncrossed. When the fray was over Mansfield had crossed it. Crossed it twice to be exact. However, lest we forget, we also have a goal line and the Whippets crossed it not two times but four which resulted in the final score of Shelby 26, Mansfield 13. The Tygers actually outplayed the Border Town athletes but unfortunately it is not the custom to award the game to the team who plays the best but to the one who scores the most.

MANSFIELD 6—KENMORE 33

Again Mansfield met a Rubber City combine but this time the Tygers were on the wrong end of the score. Lloyd Miller one of the greatest backs in Akron History scored when he wanted and as he wanted. True it was the breaks that paved the way for him. M.H.S. gridiron gladiators gained more ground than Kenmore did although the score does not indicate it. Four Tyger passes were intercepted and seven Bengal fumbles were recovered by Kenmore. LeMunyon made the only Tyger touchdown on a 30 yard sweep.

MANSFIELD 44—ASHLAND 0

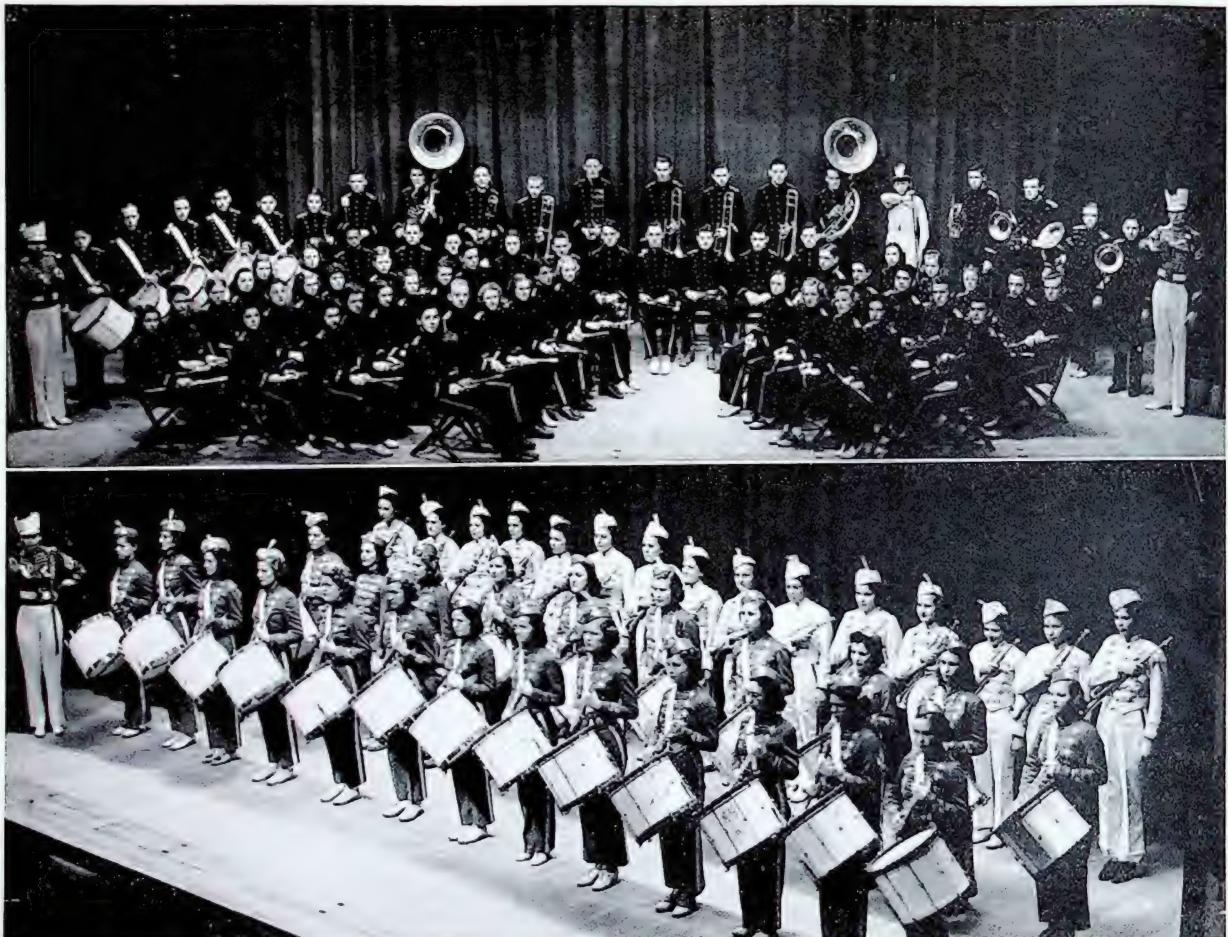

After being defeated in their three previous starts the Bengals went wild against a weak Ashland eleven. Nagle, McMullen, Dials, Hershey, M. Smith, LeMunyon, Pfahler all participated in the touchdown parade. The Orange-men never had a chance against the touchdown hungry Bengals. The line play of the whole Mansfield forward wall was superb.

MANSFIELD 0—McKINLEY 32

For the last game of the season the Men of Murphy journeyed to Canton, there to meet the strong Bulldogs of McKinley. Bad breaks again prevailed and the Tygers dropped a 32 to 0 decision. Roman and Motley did the most damage for Canton. This ended a rather dismal season for the local lads. In this game Harper Krupp, Joe Consentino, Bob Murray, Grover Swoyer, Joe Lehr, Captain Dick Nagle, Ike Smith, Harold Gallagher, Bill Russell, Dick McMullen, and Al Schwaner appeared in Tyger livery for the last time.

Although, in a final check up of the season it is found that the Tygers won only four out of nine games, it must be remembered that in no previous season has Mansfield faced such a stiff schedule which included the state champion, and it was faced with only one of last years great team returning. In the final analysis, it matters not how many games were lost but how the losses were taken.

When we go to "pep meetings", what is there to greet us? At football games, be it victory or defeat, what sound do we always meet? When an activity needs a little push in advertising, what group give its service? This list of things done by the band could go on and on. A tireless, ready, willing and able group of students pour forth their music ability into huge tubas or down to flutes. A band is something every fair sized school is expected to have, and our band more than lives up to that expectation.

Once upon a time when M. H. S. had football games, there were no fair lassies in red and white uniforms to march down the field with lively steps. No cocky hats offset faces shining with pride. Then Mr. Holcombe saw the need and organized a drum and bugle corps.

Today we are proud to have an organization, which is willing to brave the coldest, most stormy and even the hottest weather during practices in order that the spectators at the games might be given enjoyment.

SCOTT

SHELLEY

MANSFIELD 29 — SHELBY 13

In direct contrast to the football season four of last year's regulars returned. Among them are Tom Scott, Dave Shelley, Jack Dugger, and Jack Lyons. Also several promising reserves were coming up, namely, Don Rose, Gene Rudolph, and Bill Herpich.

Mansfield was destined to meet none other than their traditional foe, Shelby in the first cage game of the year on the latters court. After a rough and tumble first half, which ended with the score Mansfield 8 and Shelby 6, the Tygers settled down and really whipped the Whippets 29 to 13. Dave Shelley and Gene Rudolph paced the Cat attack with 7 markers each.

MANSFIELD 37 — CLEVELAND WEST 38

For the second straight time the Jungle Cats had to play on foreign planks. This time in Cleveland where the Tygers fell victims to the new suicide rule, which states that a team making the first two points wins. For three periods the Cowboys were kept well in hand, but sad to relate for just three periods. In the fourth chukker, Cleveland West tied up the score with one second of play remaining and went on to win from there. Scott, Shelley, and Lyons, with 11, 10, and 9 points, respectively, led the Tygers in scoring.

MANSFIELD 27 — HAMILTON 32

In their first home encounter, the local lads dropped a 32 to 27 decision to a loftier Hamilton quintet. At the end of the half, the Men of Murphy were on the long end of the score, 21 to 17. However in the third period both Shelley and Lyons were ejected from the game on fouls and henceforth the Tyger stock moved fast down hill. Scott with an even dozen markers starred in this.

MANSFIELD 31 — McKINLEY 38

Although "Jake" Lyons dumped in 12 markers, the Men of Murphy dropped a 38 to 31 decision to the touted Bulldogs from McKinley. The Tygers found themselves behind the proverbial eight ball at the end of the first quarter, as they were on the very short end of a 14 to 5 count—a lead which the Tygers were never able to overcome. This was the third straight defeat suffered by the "Cats."

MANSFIELD 28 — ERIE, PA. 26

In a nip and tuck battle, the Bengals won over a team from the "Land of William Penn" 28 to 26. Scott, who caged 9 points, was high man for both squads, while Dugger dumped in seven markers.

MANSFIELD 39 — CLEVELAND WEST 23

The local court cavorleers were offered another crack at Cleveland West, who had defeated them earlier in the season, and the Tygers made the most of it as they garnered 39 points to the Cowboys 23. Scott and Lyons again led the scoring spree, each netting 10 of those things that count. Early in the first chapter the Bengals hopped into the lead and continued to add to their advantage.

MANSFIELD 35 — ASHLAND 18

In the next fray, Ashland came, was seen and needless to say conquered. The Tygers were hitting on all cylinders as they decisively dropped the Ashland county combine 35 to 18. It was Lyons and Scott who supplied most of the punch in this battle with 9 markers apiece. However, the fine floorwork of the rest of the Bengal cage combine must not be over looked.

MANSFIELD 24 — NEW PHILADELPHIA 26

In the last seconds the Jungle Cats lost a decision to New Philadelphia by a 26 to 24 count. Lyons sparked the M. H. S. hoopsters with 8 points. It was a nip and tuck affair, as the score indicates, and Mansfield was more than a little hampered by the small court.

MANSFIELD 32 — BELLEVUE 37

Mansfields hopes for retaining their district championship fell suddenly. A defeat at the hands of Bellevue 37 to 32 was the cause. For three chuckkers the squads battled on even terms, but then Bellevue pulled ahead. It was Scott and Dugger who were high with 9 points.

MANSFIELD 29 — SANDUSKY 23

With Lyons getting more than half of the M. H. S. points, the Tygers spanked Sandusky 29 to 23. Six different times the squads were deadlocked and only in the closing seconds was a victory assured for the Bengals.

MANSFIELD 43 — SHELBY 32

With Shelley and Scott collecting 13 points apiece the Bengals defeated an inspired Whippet team 43 to 32. It was the fifth consecutive win for the local lads.

MANSFIELD 23 — MASSILLON 24

For four periods the two Cat teams battled on even terms. At the end of the regulation playing time, the squads were tied; then came the fatal fifth period and again M. H. S. was defeated by the sudden death rule, as a Massillon player made two fouls and thus won the encounter. Jake Lyons, Tyger captain, garnered 10 points to lead his mates in this department.

MANSFIELD 32 — McKINLEY 29

In the final fray of the season, M. H. S. played the Bulldogs from Canton who in a previous game had defeated the locals decisively. It was Shelley, making four of each kind, who supplied the scoring sock for the Bengals.

Thus the Tygers closed their season in a blaze of glory. However there was more to follow, namely the district tournament which title the Tygers copped the preceding year.

In the district pairing, the Men of Murphy hit a streak of luck. In their first fray they were scheduled to meet a tough Port Clinton combine and if they got passed this game, it was believed it would be a rather easy task to tumble into the finals.

For the first half the Red Cats were held in check and at the intermission the score was tied 9 all. But in the final chapters, the local court cavorleers found the range and waltzed off the court with a 33 to 20 decision. Scott again held high point honors with 11.

It was our old friend (?) Shelby who attempted to put the Bengals out of the tournament in the second game. They succeeded rather poorly, being beaten 38 to 23. However, this does not tell the whole story. In the first period the Whippets held a 7 to 0 lead over the highly touted Tygers, which was not overcome till the end of the beginning chukker. It may be said too that Dave Shelley scored sixteen points.

In the last minute Scott sunk a side shot, to take the Willard game out of the fire. For almost four periods the Red Streaks held the cat at bay and threw a bad scare into the whole M. H. S. outfit. For the game was considered a set up by the experts. This happened to be an off night for the Bengals and Willard almost made the best of it.

After their poor showing in the Willard tilt, the Tygers went into the finals as the underdog. It was none other than Bellevue, a squad who had tanned the cats earlier, whom we had to face. For 31 and a fraction thrill crazed minutes, the result was in doubt, then Captain Jack Lyons arched one from the center of the court through the strings, to retain the district championship. From start to finish it was the most exciting game ever witnessed in Sandusky. After the final gun the Bengal rooters literally went mad (so did the team) and staged one of the greatest victory celebrations ever seen at the Bay City.

Then the Tygers troupes to Columbus to engage Akron North in the mad fight for the state title. Like the year before the Bengals picked this fray to be off. And when we say off we mean off. Dugger's playing was the only bright spot in the dismal game displayed by the Murphymen. Three days later a little balm was added to the Tyger wounds when it was learned that North capped the championship. Well anyway we were one of the 16 best teams in the state.

The Wrestling Club

Newly organized, under the guidance of Mr. Million, this club furnishes not only enjoyment, but also sometimes strained muscles and hard bumps. However these boys "can take it" and also "give it out." Although everyone of them can be gentle, it is best not to meet one of these boys in a dark alley if he is your enemy, for each one knows all the arts of wrestling.

Much credit should be given to the "M" Association for its assistance in the many events of the school. Composed of boys who have received their letter, the club was formed to promote sportsmanship and interest in athletics. Coach Mehock, the head of the club, is a pal and friend to all the boys.

If a stranger were looking at this group, he might think that the "M" stands for manliness, for these letters and the meaning behind them add a certain dignity to the wearers.

This year some of the members served at the Annual Roll Call Dinner for the Senior Red Cross Council. Also two girls from the club were sent to Washington for a week to participate in the National Red Cross Congress. Third Row—Thomas Anderson, Virginia Williams, Richard Sparks, Katherine Steil, William Houston, Ruth Husung, Rudolph Perry, Eleanor Coe.

If the students of this club didn't learn from their study of physiology, that the camera is patterned from the human eye, they undoubtedly found it out when they became members. Many phases of photography are studied; then contest for the best pictures are held. It is interesting to see whether the winners are ones, who stick to the rules or go their own free way. Although it is no reflection to the club, it seems that the public menace, "the candid camera fiend", got his start and idea from such a group as this. Let us hope that the advisor, Mr. Elder, doesn't encourage this practice.

The Red Masque Club

Second Row—Velma Stimmer, Jean Wolff, Virginia Fairman, Marilyn Wright, Gene Lantz, Gertrude Kullman, Leona Hout, Alice Rhoads, Joan Twitchell, Earl Heasley.

Third Row—Betty Hanlon, Elaine Hellinger, Maurine Beal, Harold Duda, Ralph Arlin, Robert Sheriff, Gloria Kline, Josephine Hughes, Virginia Casperson.

The purpose of the Red Masque is to further the study and appreciation of good drama. To become a member, one must successfully pass a try-out before the advisor and executive committee. In the try-out, the student may give a reading, part of a play, monologue or any original presentation. One of the club's main projects, is the annual play, which this year was "Lavender and Old Lace." Through the efforts of this club and Mr. Heasely, the advisor, drama is playing a much more important part in our school activities, than it used to.

The Red Masque Play

Betty Hanlon, Albert Poth, Richard Wright, Ruth Smith, Vivian Miller, Ruth Meisel, Harold Duda, Willis Wygant, Miriam Jenkins, Gertrude Kullman.

"LAVENDER AND OLD LACE"

In a quaint New England village, an elderly lady, Mary Ainslie, portrayed by Vivian Miller, has kept a light burning every night in her attic window. No one in the village knew the reason for her doing this, not even her closest friend, Jane Hathaway, played by Ruth Smith. Just when Jane was expecting her niece, Ruth Thorne, portrayed by Ruth Meisel, to visit her, she found that she must go to Europe. However, Miss Ainslie offered to have Ruth stay with her, and when the latter arrived, they became very fond of each other.

Harold Duda played the part of Carl Winfield, a young newspaper reporter who was suffering from eye trouble and came to the village for a rest. He and Ruth became acquainted and were soon engaged. Carl was hurt in an accident and his eyesight was saved only by an operation for which Miss Ainslie paid. Then Mary disclosed that the light in her attic window was kept burning for her sweetheart who went away to sea, but she removed the light after she dreamed that he was dead. Carl discovered that his father was Miss Ainslie's lover and although they were no relation he was verbally adopted by Miss Ainslie. Finally, Mary consented to marry her doctor, played by Willis Wygant, who had loved her for so many years.

Although the leading players were very good in their acting, the honors were stolen by the various comedy parts, namely those played by Betty Hanlon, Miriam Jenkins, and Albert Poth.

The Junior and Senior Blue Tri

Many people, who see the Blue Tri Girls throng into Isaly's around eight thirty on Monday evenings, believe this to be the purpose of the organization. Incredible as it may seem, the girls hold and uphold a much more serious purpose in the club. Their symbol is the blue triangle, which stands for the spiritual, mental and physical life of girls. Speakers, musical programs, plays, hobby groups and taking charge of an assembly for the school, all lie in the programs for the meetings. This year, the new advisor, Miss Violet Richardson and President, Marjorie Mahon, successfully managed the Blue Tri. Miss Richardson is more than an advisor, she is a real pal.

The Sophomore Blue Tri

Second Row—Maxine Callihan, Adaline Wilging, Leona Hout, Naomi Pfaff, Nancy Cox, Pauline Auxter, Sally Russell, Mary Alice Mitchell, Marilynn Ackerman, Amy Jacot, Ruby McClellan, Mary Delianides, Mary Anna Stahl, Marilou Sowash, Maxene Williams, Dorothy McFadden.

Although the girls of this organization are mere "freshies" at M. H. S., they have practically the same type of programs and hobbies as do their "elders" in the Senior group. It is an organization such as this which start the girls, when they are young, on the road of building a fine character. Gretchen Edwards presides over the meetings and gets much aid and advice from the advisor, Miss Violet Richardson.

Under the direction of Harold C. Mansfield, the club advisor, this organization has become prominent in the social life of some thirty members. The students acting as officers who lead the club are Lynn McCorquodale, president; Richard Burkholder, vice president; Myron Miller, secretary; Robert Preston, treasurer; and David Gibson, sergeant-at-arms.

All students and faculty members are familiar with the social affairs conducted by the Hi-Y, and trust that it will continue to be a well-known, popular, and active organization.

One of the three Hi-Y clubs, co-sponsored by the school and the Y. M. C. A., is the Junior Hi-Y, which, as its name implies, is made up entirely of boys in the eleventh grade. The organization has as its purpose the promotion of higher character in the members. It meets every Thursday evening at the "Y. M." under the direction of Fred Lavender, president, and Mr. Walter Mickey, advisor.

The aim of many boys in their last year of school, is to be able to join the Senior Hi-Y. Under the guidance of H. D. Bishop, it has a widely varied list of activities. Journeying to state institutions, helping needy families at Christmas and sponsoring a dance each year, are only a few. Each boy in order to stay in the club must live a good Christian life.

The Social Science Service Club

Second Row—Edavine Selby, Mary Beer, Jean Wolff, Arlene Bauman, Doris Peat, Dorothy Blackstone, Jerry Frank, Julia Fishback, Katherine Mavromatis

Third Row—Virginia Rupp, Clara Beer, Virginia Casperson, Miriam Jenkins, Rebecca Frampton, Betty Bell, Mary Virginia Turner, Eileen Marlowe.

Fourth Row—Virginia Williams, Margie Schwein, Teddy Wendt, Shirley Childs, Rhea Hall, Helen Kaler, Marguerite Bader, Janet Gadfield.

Every Christmas many poor families are thankful that the S. S. S. Club exists. We are thankful that we have the students and teachers, like Miss Dunham and Mr. Coe, who are willing to give their time and energy, in order to help others. In behalf of the members, the advisor, Mr. Coe and Miss Dunham wish to thank all the students who helped contribute to the Christmas baskets.

Last fall, the club organized the fund for Chinese Refugees. In addition to these activities the members performed many services for the school.

The German Club

Second Row—Ann Bayer, Betty Bell, Roselyn Macon, Viola Meister, Gladys Kerr, Marcia Wolf, Velma Stimmier, Marge Zimmerman, Virginia Cupp, Thelma Peterson.

Although this is not a new club, it has not been in existence for some time and was re-organized this year. Probably the main reasons for its re-organization were the nationally known activities of Germany and also the persuasive powers of Bob (Hitler) Roth. Other students, who do not belong, seem to enjoy this club as can be seen by the many "Hitler salutes."

The German Club talks over problems concerning the Germans, gives reports, sings songs and sometimes enjoys musical programs given by the members.

January Class Officers

WILLIAM THOMPSON FISHBACK

Bill has always stood, and probably always will stand very high in scholastic achievements. Every year he has added more honors to his name. As the editor of the Hypno, he became affiliated with the Hypno-Manhigan group and engaged in all their jokes and arguments. He piloted his class safely for two years and helped it make a three-point landing.

KATHRYN LOUISE KASER

Kathryn played an important part in her class, yet she never gained attention by making a lot of noise. She was quiet, and rather retiring, and very lady-like. Her minutes of the class meetings were as accurate as all the other things that she did.

MARTHA ELOISE SPETKA

Many people often wish that they could strut down a football field, but are afraid to do so. Martha, however, being drum major of the drum and bugle corps, strutted to her heart's content and to the delight of the spectators. She took an active part in musical, athletic, and other organizations. As Vice-President she successfully helped to manage her class.

MARY LOUISE BLACK

When we think of a clown, we invariably think of Mary. She is a good sport and very entertaining. "Blackie" didn't have so very much trouble collecting money, because she always got her victims in a happy state of mind. No matter what happened "Blackie" never grumbled, but took it all in her stride.

SPRING CALLS AGAIN

As happens every year, mother nature is again calling M. H. S. students to come down to the park. Although monitors are placed around the park, they have overlooked some of the secret nooks. Bing Owens and Virginia Linham have taken a sudden interest in the study of flowers. There are many other couples who also enjoy the park scenery, but they have paid your reporter a neat sum to keep their names out. Anyone who wishes to know these names, and also has a sufficient sum of money ready, call the Acme Investigating Agency.

DISCOVERY MADE BY M. H. S. PROFESSOR

Victor Ketner, yesterday informed an unsuspecting nation that, after many years of research, he has finally obtained absolute proof of the Ketner theory. The Ketner theory, as you all know, states—that if an ordinary person of average intelligence or less, is taken under supervision and tutored by Dr. Ketner's secret formula, that person will develop into a genius capable of acquiring an immense amount of knowledge. Such persons would be of untold value in chemical laboratories and such, greatly improving our way of living. As proof of this theory, Dr. Ketner presents, Edwin Seiler.

SAFE-CRACKING COURSE OPEN TO ALL THIEVES

A new course will be open to all those interested in safe-cracking. Since so much damage has been done to the school property through lack of knowledge of safe-breaking, this course will teach the technique. Frank Mowery has volunteered to teach the class.

JITTERBUG CONTEST HELD AT M. H. S.

Due to the urgent requests of the jitterbug fans, Miss Mendenhall, Miss Blake, and Miss Patterson, a contest will be held for teachers and students. Miss Patterson and Mr. Bishop will give points on the technique of trucking. Miss Brown and Mr. Sherman will give a new dance originated by Mr. Rahn.

G. A. A. HAS DATING BUREAU

The girls of the G. A. A. set up a dating bureau for their coming dance. All boys, who were interested in going, handed in their names. However a few men teachers thought that they would like to go too.

BACHELORS MEET TO DISCUSS NEW LAWS AND IDEALS

The famous order of Unaffiliated Bachelors decided today that they would make new rules for the club. From now on each member is allowed only seven dates a week and not more than fifty kisses per girl. The latter rule was set by that prude, Bob (Moose) Meese, who believes that there is a time and place for everything.

NEW BOILER ROOM NEEDED

The S. R. C. met Wednesday to discuss the problem of the boiler room. It seems that this haven can no longer be used. Although the question at stake was a very delicate one, the students agreed to help. Grover Swoyer suggested that a shotgun might prove very useful.

NEW AUTHOR BLOOMS

Following in the steps of Louis Bromfield, one of M. H. S.'s own geniuses has gained literary fame. Calvin A. Byers has entitled his latest book, "Little Miss Muffett" or "Listen to the Grass Grow". Your commentator can hardly wait to read his next book, "Why Is A Duck" or "How High Is Up"? You should know, C. A.!

Dedicated to the preservation of the physical well-being of Mansfield girls, the Girls' Athletic Association includes in its members, virtually every co-ed who can and will participate in sports.

One hundred points must be earned by physical exertion in order to be in the organization. The group has its social aspects: a Play Day in the spring, a Man Dance, or parties. The aim of the club is not merely to provide an opportunity for the participation of sports, but also to teach sportsmanship, co-operation, loyalty and many other attributes. Miss Clapsaddle, the advisor, has helped make this Association one of the most popular in the school, as can be seen by the attendance.

Burns, Smart, Edwards, Cutter, Gorman, Sowash, Seaton, McCorguadale, Houlette.

In their first meet of the year, the Mansfield Tankmen defeated Wooster for their first win since the sport has been reinstated. Preston in the 100 yard breast stroke, Sowash in the 220 free style, Hilligoss in the diving and the 150 and 220 relay teams, all copped first place.

For their second successive win, the Tyger mermen ducked the Mount Vernon "Y" 48 to 18. Betz, Strome, Jones, Smart, Hilligoss all turned in praising performances.

Only Walker, the 50 yard free stylist, and the 200 yard relay combination of Smart, Betz, McCartney and Walker nosed out first in their water battle with Sandusky. Consequently the local mermen suffered a 42 to 24 decision.

Again the Tyger tankers were defeated, this time by

Hilligoss

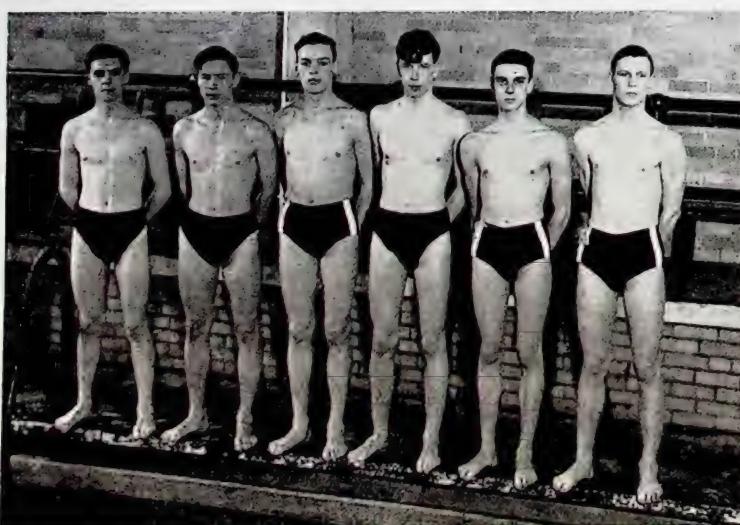

Canton McKinley. The Bulldogs proved superior to the Cats in every department except two, the 100 yard breast stroke with Preston doing the splashing and the 200 yard relay team. It was Betz, Smart, McCartney and Walker churning the foam in this event.

With Captain Bud Betz garnering the only first, the Tyger Splashes were defeated by a powerful Canton Lehman combine, 42 to 24.

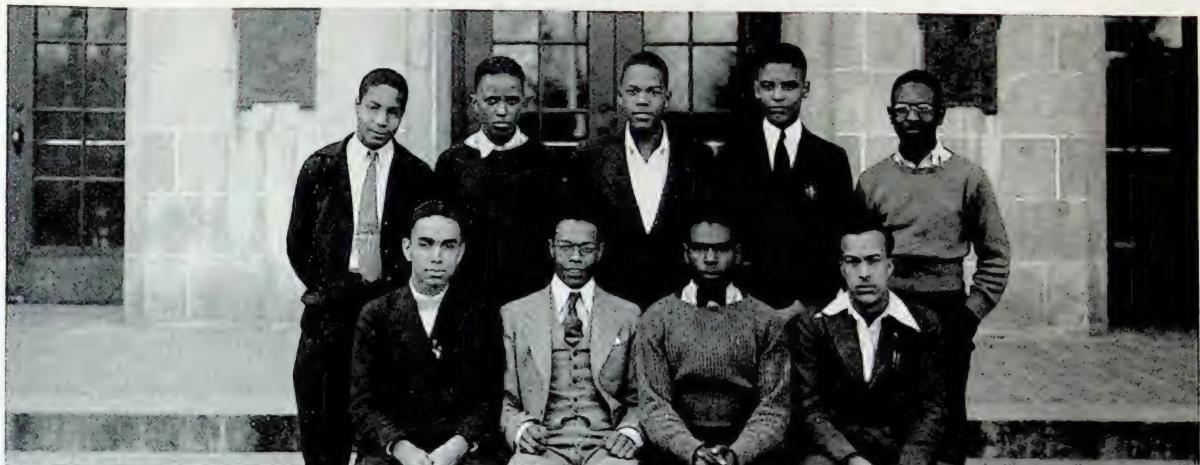

Again it was Betz who accounted for Mansfield's only first in the 50 and 100 yard free style events. And thus Toledo Devilbiss really trounced the Tygers 44 to 22.

Taking six firsts, four seconds and two thirds the Tygers trounced Bellevue 46 to 20, in the latters pool.

In their last meet the Bengals were drowned by the Oberlin Frosh, 40 to 14. Only the 150 yard medley relay came in first.

McCartney, Capt. Betz, Walker, Preston, Beam, Strome.

Tau Gamma Rho

The Tau-Gamma Rho is an organization composed of colored boys at Mansfield Senior High School. This club is a branch under the auspices of the Hi-Y Conference. Its principles are the same as the other Hi-Y clubs. The motto is—to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community in which they live, high standards of christian character. Samuel Davis presides over the weekly meetings.

The Student Representative Council

Second Row—Mr. Kinker, Martha Spetka, Mary Bair, Erna Schenk, Kathryn Kaser, Mildred Miller, Martha Wappner, Kathleen MacIn-tosh, Robert Fleming, Harold Williams, Miss Mendenhall

The Student Representative Council, better known by its abbreviated name, the S. R. C., is composed of pupils representing each class in the school. The members put their own names up for election and are chosen every semester by their respective classes; the number from each class, being determined by a progressive scale, from twelve in the 12A Class to two in the 10B Class. The club is the student-governing body of the school, deciding and enforcing many such things as the type of noon recreation or who will control the various concessions in and about the school. It meets every Monday in room 304 with Ray Bush, presiding, and Miss Kathleen Mendenhall and Mr. H. R. Kinker, acting as advisors.

The Hyphonerian Staff

The Hyphonerian

Evidently it has been discovered that one half year of editorship for the Hypho is all one person can stand, because this is all the longer that that honored position can be held. The editors, Bill Layton and Grover Swoyer, will agree that it has been a lot of work, but also a lot of fun. All the members of the staff, who are permitted to stay in the Hypho Manhigan room, say that there is nothing like this room for variety in things that happen. Miss Patterson, who often comes in unexpectedly, also finds this true.

Contrary to common belief, reporters are not scurrying in and out trying to make the deadline—the editors don't crumple up all the paper that they are supposed to—and Miss Patterson doesn't sit anxiously on the edge of her seat, hoping that all the copy will get in. Most of the worrying is done at the printers when the type is set and there happens to be a vacant space. When Friday comes, the Hypho is brought hot off the press; the staff catches a breath and prepares for the next edition in two weeks.

The Orchestra

Violin: Marcia Wolf, Joseph Pival, Lois Robinson, Dale Bechtel, Jean Gardner, Virginia Cupp Gladys Kerr. Second Violin: Ruth Smith, Naomi Hamblin, Jane Meyers, Pauline Roberts, Eleanor Bond. Cello: Frank Pival, Thelma Vawter, Eileen Handley. Viola: Leona Hout. Bass: Richard Sparks. Flute: Ruth Hockett, Alvina Spriggins. Clarinet: Jim Hart, Helen Damlos, Dorothy Wagner, Jacques Edwards, Harvey Todd. Saxophone: Harold Duda. Piano: Anne Jeannette Klinger. Trumpet: Richard Speika, Jack Meyers, William Smith. Trombones: Robert Lehman, Walter Lake. Drums: Harold Flaherty, Richard Lisle.

M. H. S. has always stood out in the field of athletics, but until rather recently, it was not developed in most types of music and drama. But the school is broadening and developing in its interests. The orchestra has received benefit from this development. Although he has only been here two years, Mr. Jorgensen has been making rapid progress with the orchestra. We appreciate the fine music furnished us by this group, at the plays and other performances presented on our stage, and hope that it will keep up its splendid reputation.

The M. H. S. Forum

Second Row—Robert K. Roth, Ralph D. Robbins, Nick Mavromatis, Harriett H. Johnston, Rebecca Frampton, Karl Eberhardt, Clifford Emerick, Bruce Goldman.

Third Row—Walter B. Mayer, William Houston, Bob Brandenburg, Bob Castor, Tom Anderson.

Since current events are coming more and more to the attention of everyone, because of the changes in our government and the conditions in Europe, the students decided to form a club in which they could discuss various political problems and events. Thus the M. H. S. Forum was founded. The programs include: guest speakers, debates, and open discussions. Mr. L. A. Rahn is the advisor of this organization.

The Vocational Club

One of the newer organizations of M. H. S. is the Vocational Club, which has been formed for only several years. It is among the largest of clubs in school, having approximately 115 boys as its members. As the name tells you it is a club made up of boys in the Vocational Department. The meetings are held every other Tuesday evening at seven o'clock. The usual programs consist of talks on vocations, given by various men. Mr. Oberlander is the advisor of the club. The officers are: Steve Karnavas, President; Russell Beer, Vice-President; Darrell Bush, Secretary; and Frank Mowery, Treasurer.

Booth and Sound System Operators and Home Room Projectionists

Second Row—Richard Hassinger, Harold Lash, Ralph Hazlett, Jacob Rupanovic, Ed Art.

Third Row—A. T. Owen, Harold Bogner, Dick Garver.

Few students know that these boys exist, or likewise appreciate just what they do for the school. The Booth and Sound System Operators are the "men behind the scenes;" they are the ones who are responsible for the success with which our public address system works; they see that each morning we hear clearly the announcements and devotions.

The home-room projectionists operate the movie projector for the class room films. They assure us of good movies, which run without any "hitches," and efficient sound to accompany them.

SCENES FROM MANSFIELD RELAYS.

THE SHOT PUT
START OF THE 100 YARD DASH

THE BAND

HI-JUMP

LINTA ESTABLISHING A NEW RELAY MARK OF 13 FT. 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ IN.

The Mansfield Relays

The Mansfield Relays is the greatest event of its kind in the United States. Away back in 1927, Harry Mehock originated the relays with three schools participating. How this small idea has grown! For the thirteenth annual meet more than 100 teams were entered, bringing with them 1100 athletes. For days before the classic, it had rained and many of the dopesters thought that to break a break on a wet track was well nigh impossible. However, old man weather decided to give Director Mehock and his small army of assistants a break. On the big day not a cloud was in sight and the oval was in good condition for the assault on all records, and seven of these were trampled in the dust by night fall. Mansfield's own Johnny Linta established a new pole vault mark soaring into the ozone, 13 feet 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches. Only by a fraction of an inch did he miss manufacturing a new worlds record of 13 feet 9 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches. Other marks were made by Cathedral Latin in the mile relay in the time of 3 minutes and 31 seconds. Latin was also responsible for shattering the two mile relay mark with a time of 8 minutes and 21 seconds. Columbus North in 1 minute and .1 second broke the shuttle relay mark. Johnson of Poland, Ohio, threw the discus 152 feet and 3 inches. Wright of Huntington West Virginia topped the tiny timbers in 25.3 seconds; Jorden jogged the mile in 4 minutes and 34 seconds.

THE SHUTTLE RELAY WITH COLUMBUS NORTH IN FRONT

THE QUEENS . . . NEED WE SAY MORE?

The Mansfield Relays

The best performance of the day was turned in by Wright of Huntington, who copped first in both hurdle events and in the 220 yard dash. He also grabbed a fourth in the discus to give his team 20 of their 22 points.

Cleveland East, in a late spurt, outpointed East Tech by one half point to take home the relay trophy. Huntington, Sandusky, Cathedral Latin, Cleveland Central, Akron South, Cleveland West Tech, Columbus North and Toledo Scott finished in that order to take the first ten places. Mansfield was in the twelfth position. Lyons who took fourth in the pole vault, Fred Atwater who was third in the tall timbers and the medley relay team, consisting of Ferguson, Rose, Henke, and Donnon came in third, and helped contribute to Linia's six markers giving M. H. S. a total of 12.

The fine cooperation of the merchants and mothers must be commended in putting over the finest school boy meet ever run in the World.

As the track season is just opening when this chronicle is due to go to press, the team is still a "dark horse". However, there are many lettermen back from the preceding season and Coach Harry Mehock expects to develop a promising crew. Among the veterans returning are John Linta, who in a Pittsburgh meet, cracked unofficially the worlds inter-scholastic record, topping the cross bar at 13 feet and four inches. Several other contenders are Joe Logan, Bob Donnan, Howard Hershey, Don Rose, Martin Henke, "Red" LeMunyon, John Pfahler, Dick Nagle, Harold Gallagher, Jack Lyons, Ike Smith, Dick McMullen and Russ Dykstra.

Coach Mehock has experienced considerable difficulty in rounding his squad into form, because of the bad weather conditions. Their first meet with Springfield was cancelled because of a flu epidemic.

Finally the track season opened, and for Mansfield it opened with a bang running rough shod over Newark 88 to 30. In two events the Bengals won all three places, Logan, LeMunyon, and Dykstra finishing in that order in the hundred, and Nagle, Russell and Gallagher won, placed and showed respectively in the discus. Lyons, a high hurdler, Donnan, miler, Rose, quartermiler, Linta, low hurdler, Burkholder, half miler, LeMunyon in the 220 yard dash, Smith, broad jumper, Hershey and Lyons, pole vaulter and the relay teams, won their events.

For their second successive win, the local cinder churners turned in a 64 to 50 win over Columbus North. Linta, in winning the low hurdles and pole vault was high for M. H. S. LeMunyon, Logan, Nagle and 880 relay team also turned in wins.

With Linta coping two firsts, the Red Streaks defeated the Pennsylvania State champions, Erie Strong Vincent, 70 to 48. Linta, of course, took the pole vault and he also broke the tape in the low hurdles. "Red" LeMunyon also won two events, the 100 and 220 yard dashes. It was in these races that Mansfield took all three places. With Ike Smith, the "Midnight Express", running in championship styles in the third position, the Streaks took the 880 and mile relays. Smith also took the broad jump with a 19 feet hop. In the "Platter" hurling contest, Nagle grabbed off another win. This made it three straight for Mehock's proteges in dual competition.

In the "Wesleyan Relays" the Streaks were in top form to take the fourth spot. Our pole vaulting combination of Linta, Hershey, and Lyons were the only local cinder churners to take first. In the 440 relay, Logan, LeMunyon, Dykstra and Smith pulled a second out of the fire. This same quartet also took the half mile relay. Ike in the broad jump, placed third. Donnan, Henke, Mancini and Burkeholder trailed three other squads to the tape to take a fourth in the two mile baton trading event.

The January Class Play

Marguerite Miller and Donald Speakman had the leading roles in "The Youngest." The plot revolved around Richard Winslow, (Speakman), the down-trodden member of an overbearing family, consisting of the spoiled oldest brother, Oliver, (Willis Lewis); another son, Mark, (William Gorby); Augusta, the married daughter, (Kay Glessner) and her husband, Allen, (Harlan Hedrick); Mrs. Winslow, (Bettie Bottomley); the likable daughter, Muff, (Mary Bair) and Katie, the Maid (Margery Buel).

Nancy Blake, (Marguerite Miller), a friend of the family, decides to help Richard assert himself. Aided by Allen she discovers a way in which Richard may gain the upper hand over the family and persuades him to do so.

Although "The Youngest" had a rather serious idea, there were many laughs, the majority of which were received by Bill Lewis. This play sets another record in fine acting, done not only by the leads, but also by the rest of the cast.

"In Old Vienna"

Hans (Willis Wygant) sent his servants hither and yon to make his inn ready for the very distinguished guests, who were coming to Wurtzelpraeter Inn. Soon Lady Vivian (Marguerite Miller), an English woman who was searching for her long lost daughter, and June, (Javetta Bookmyer), and her father Jonas Pennington, (Richard Wright) arrived. Captain Kinski (Ralph Arlin) promised to guard the guests and put his famous screwy detectives, Bumski and Rumski (Bill Hollingshead and Gene Gump) on the job. June met her former sweetheart, Crefont (Max Miller), who was studying art in Vienna. Pennington's advertising expert, Jones (Bill Lewis) was also residing in Vienna. Hans planned to have the annual carnival for the entertainment of his guest, Jigo (Dale Bechtel), with his band of Gypsies and supposed daughter, Ilona (Kathleen Macintosh) visited the carnival and performed for the people.

Lady Vivian became interested in Ilona and discovered that she was her lost daughter. By the aid of that lovable god, Cupid, four couples—Crefont and June, Pennington and Lady Vivian, Jones and Ilona, and Captain Kinski and the waitress, Louisa, (La Nola Meyers,) Betty Hanlon and Jeanette Kelley are sent on that road which invariably leads to that doom, known as marriage.

As is the case in most productions, the comedy parts were the most popular. Bill Hollingshead and Gene Gump were perfectly suited to their roles of dopey detectives. Captain Kinski and Louisa delighted everyone with their awkward actions; Lewis and Kathleen won the audience with their beautiful songs and witty remarks.

The June Class Play

It is very seldom that the senior plays are made up entirely of comedy. However, Mr. Van Arnam ventured to break the custom and chose the farce, "Billy."

The story opened as Billy (Ralph Arlin) and his sister, Alice (Marilyn Wright), who were sailing for the Indies, were saying goodbye to their parents (Marion Southward and Ellen Cramer). Billy was going on the trip to recover from a football accident, in which he lost his four front teeth. Beatrice Sloane (Gloria Kline) and her mother (Dorothy Meister) were also on board, much to the delight of Billy. Sam (Charles McClure), who was very jealous of Billy, told a few white lies to Mrs. Sloane, who in turn forbade her daughter to see Billy. Because Alice told Billy that it was not fair to deceive Beatrice by not telling her about his false teeth, he decided to confess. However, he only told Beatrice that he had four of "them" and he did not have the nerve to explain what the "them" were. Unknowingly, the steward (Jack Morrow) bumped Billy with a door and caused him to lose his false teeth. In desperation, Billy stole Mrs. Sloane's teeth, to see if he could use them, but Alice made him put them back. The sailor found Billy's teeth and after there were no inquiries concerning them, he suggested to the captain (Robert Roth) that they be auctioned off, since there was gold in them. The money from the auction was to go for a sailor's home. Of course Billy bid the highest and Alice interpreted it as an act of charity. Consequently, she made up with the sailor and left Sam out in the cold.

"Billy" set the audience into fits of hysteria, when Ralph tried to talk without his teeth and make love to Gloria, using only words which he could say without lisping. The entire cast was excellent and the play was received very well by the audience.

The Manhigan

One good way for anyone to add wrinkles to his forehead and have other common ailments of worry, is to become the editor of the Manhigan or join the staff. However, the one thrill which no other thing can equal, is to see all the copy sent to the printer and the pictures to the engraver. When the deadline for all material is passed and the book is well on the way to being completed, the staff tries to jump in the air, but finding the necessary energy lacking, they are content with collapsing on the floor.

Then the day of days comes—Class Day and the debut of the Manhigan. What is more exciting (and sometimes—funny) than to see one's own sweet face grinning up at one? The editors, Ellen Cramer and Jack Morrow, see their book floating around amid the students; and with a final sigh of happiness and regret, close the pages to their three years of Manhigan history.

June Class Officers

HAROLD NICKOLAUS DUDA

When we think of Duda, it is difficult to find many activities in which he did not take a prominent part. For three years he was the leader not only of an orchestra, but also of his class. Although he could be serious when the occasion demanded, we usually saw him laughing and making everyone else do the same. No matter how much popularity Harold gained, it never went to his head.

RAYMOND BUSH

Ray had to come to every class meeting with his little black book and pencil to take down the minutes. He was the other member of the June class who was chosen to be on S. R. C. for three years; this last year he was elected president. His ability to blush on embarrassing occasions and his shy charming grin, will always be remembered by those who know him.

DOROTHY MARIE BELL

It was very fortunate that "Dottie" had the qualifications for being Vice-President, because she and the president were the best of friends—perhaps more than friends. Her reliability and readiness to cooperate won for her a place in the S. R. C. for three years.

DORIS MIRIAM PEAT

Although many seniors avoided Doris for three years, it wasn't because they didn't like her, but because they knew that she was after their money; of course this was legal because she was treasurer. A good worker and grand sport, Doris had, among her other achievements, a high scholastic standing.

MANHIGAN CALENDAR

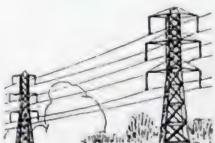

SEPTEMBER, 1938

7. Ding Dong, Rush—Rush. School starts.
16. A pep meeting to help boost the school bond issue was held; Mr. Meese was the speaker.
17. All the Tygers left for Akron West was their suits, or at least part of them and took Akron's pride and score.
20. Goodbye to ye ol' Simpson fire-trap! The school bond issue was passed.
21. The picture held in assembly, "Robin Hood," brought out all the bows and arrows that our dignified students used to play with.
24. Massillon rather—er, eh—took us for a ride, but our spirits rose at the "Tyger Shag."
30. Everyone squinted at Mr. Perez as he took the pictures of the underclassmen for the Manhigan.

OCTOBER, 1938

1. We won! Hammond, Indiana, didn't bring home the bacon.
5. The band strutted their stuff for the assembly.
8. We celebrated our victory over Columbus East at the "M" Association dance.

Congratulations, Class of '39----

To you belong the rewards of a good job, well done — you have graduated and are now ready to find your niche in the world. Your work is not finished, however, for finding that niche will require constant effort in the development of your abilities. The Ohio Brass Company, participants in Mansfield civic and industrial life for the past fifty years, wishes you the utmost success in this undertaking.

12. Shelley and Finetrock were made angels for "Caleb Stone's Death Watch" given by Drama 11 Class. Wasn't it rather difficult, Don?
15. It was rumored that Sandusky rather won the game. However it was only rumored, most people preferred not to mention it or the score—45 to 0.
19. Dr. Sayers gave a very interesting talk for assembly, entitled: "Are You a Thoroughbred."
22. The Tygers didn't recover from their last beating when they played at Shelby.
27. Although the students minds weren't on the ground, certain other parts of them were at the 12A skating party.
28. "Boo-Hoo"—well it sounds good anyway. We must express our grief in same manner at having the teachers leave us for their convention.
29. Same old story—Akron Kenmore defeated us.

NOVEMBER, 1938

2. Our new music instructor, Mr. Derr, and Mr. Weinberger were presented for assembly. The students said, quote, "What a personality, just what we need to give old M. H. S. some pep."
4. Red and White Day took the place of Alums Day, much to the delight of everyone. Bill Wygant, as the Atmosphere, stole the show, but definitely.

5. It can't be. We won! Ashland-O, Tygers-44.
10. Karl S. Bolander gave a very interesting and entertaining talk on art.
12. "We've Got a Right to Sing the Blues"—the defeated Tygers. Canton McKinley-32, M. H. S.-O.
14. Our parents went to our classes for one night—that was enough!
16. A grand old picture, "Trader Horn," was shown for assembly.
23. The January class play, "The Youngest," gave the audience an evening of fine acting and entertainment.
30. Community singing, led by Mr. Derr, made its debut and went over with a bang.

DECEMBER, 1938

2. We emerged as victors from the first basketball game with Shelby.
 7. Harold Duda's orchestra made pulses beat to the rhythm of "One O'clock Jump" and heads sway with "My Reverie." Hats off to him and the 12B's for such a splendid assembly.
 10. The mothers of Senior Hi-Y boys enjoyed not only their banquet, but also the songs and melodrama given on the program.
 16. Hamilton made us bow to them by a slight margin.
 21. "The Nativity" given by the drama class was presented for our assembly.

TO QUALITY

The pride of fine Dairy Food production that achieved world fame for the Swiss Dairylands, is even to-day, the force that makes Isaly's producers of better Dairy Foods. From a beginning in the Swiss Alps, this inherited fundamental tradition of Isaly's has progressed to build modern dairies, higher quality products and better systems for distributing dairy foods that mean so much in promoting your health and pleasure.

10. The Tygers chalked up another victory in the game with Ashland.
- 17 & 18. History was made when the operetta "In Old Vienna" ran for a matinee and two evening performances. A more startling fact is, however, that they didn't go in debt, as usually happens, but made money.
19. Suckers and dolls 'n other stuff, boys and girls all in array; some looked cute—others tough—when dressed up for Ribbon Day.
20. The day of laughs and honors—Class Day.
21. "All of Me"—hurts from the 10A Skating Party.
23. The Seniors marched on their last school mile at Baccalaureate.
27. "This Is the End"—of school days for us, said the Seniors at Commencement.
28. Sandusky was subdued by the Tygers.

FEBRUARY, 1939

2. Pictures on Liberia were shown by Dr. John Furbay, in assembly.
9. The girls had to act like ladies for the P. T. A. Mother-Daughter Assembly and Tea. Some acting!
10. Another "Sing" assembly gave us pep for the Willard game.

17. "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" was sponsored by the 12B Class in an effort to make money. It was a good effort, but—!
21. Massillon won by one point.
24. Le Petit Ensemble presented a delightful program of various popular and classical selections.

MARCH, 1939

3. The Tygers defeated Port Clinton and won the first game of their tournament.
4. The Tygers again emerged as victors over Shelby.
10. Russell Hoogerhyde showed us his form and technique—in archery.
13. Dr. No-Young Park, the Chinese who believes that shaving cream is an extravagance, spoke for assembly.
15. A special assembly was held in honor of our boys winning the District Championship Trophy.
16. The Tygers put up a grand fight, but were defeated by Akron North.
17. "Lavender and Old Lace" perfumed the stage for the annual Red Masque Play.
23. Although the school badly needed curtains, few people gave their support for the Carolina Minstrels. Little did they know what a riotous and hilarious program was to be given.

APRIL, 1939

1. Big joke—April Fool Flip (not Flop) was given by the 12A's. All the little fool's danced to Duda's music and had a grand time.
4. Classes were mixed up and messed up when the club pictures were taken for the Manhigan.
5. An American elm was planted in the school yard for the Arbor Day Program.
7. The Blue Tri took charge of the Easter assembly.
8. Another dance—another debt for the S. R. C.
- 10-12-14. "I Fall Down 'n Go Boom"—the fighters at the Boxing Tournament.
17. "The Prologue To Glory" was presented on our stage.
20. "The Crowd Roars" at that delirious, dippy, daffy, dopey drama—"The Other Kitty," presented by the Drama 11 class.
21. It was "Lovely to Look At" our queen and her attendants, as she sat on her throne and helped rule our Relay pep assembly.
22. Old sol smiled brightly for the Mansfield Relays.
28. "My Man" got hooked for the G. A. A. dance.
